Your application for service must be received by Cedar Falls Utilities, at least one working day before the date that you want service to begin in your name. Working days are Monday through Friday, except holidays. Applications received after 4 p.m. will be considered as being received on the next working day. Service will remain in your name until we receive notice to stop your service. If meters are inside the home, CFU will call you to schedule a time to read your meters before service begins.
